DAILY PITTSBURGH GAZETTE.

TUESDAY AFTERNOON, JANUARY 14, 1834.

FIRE—Last night, about nine o'clock, the Stage Office, at the corner of Wood and Second Streets, was discovered to be on fire. By the timely exertions of the Fire Companies, however, it was extinguished before much damage was done.

THE POST MASTER GENERAL.—Probably the history of no country has ever presented such a scene as has recently been exhibited by the Post Office Department.—A few years since, Mr. Barry, upon coming into office, found a surplus fund of $230,000. He has now been in that office about five years, or nearly, and, in his late report, he acknowledged his department to be in debt 195,000 dollars; but, in this statement, nothing was said about any borrowed money—not the slightest intimation is given that he had, without the authority of law, dared to borrow from "pet" banks, upwards of four hundred thousand dollars. Altho' Congress has been now in session about six weeks, yet not the slightest reference is made to this debt of almost half a million of dollars. For this money, too, the Government was paying the pet banks six per cent. interest, at the very time that it was gratuitously lending the same banks "contingent drafts" on the United States Bank for almost three million dollars.

We ask our readers, is not this a most singular matter, that officers of the administration should be unlawfully borrowing money at a high rate of interest, and at the same time and equally unlawfully lending the public money gratuitously?

But the concealment of this debt is the most remarkable and important matter.—It seems that this system of borrowing commenced in December, 1832—Congress was then in session, and continued in session upwards of six months longer, and yet not the slightest intimation was given that such money had been borrowed. The question will then, probably, occur to our readers, why all this concealment. We can only account for it in one of two ways—Before, however, we mention these, we wish to remind our readers that, two or three years ago, a committee of the Senate, in examining the Post Office Books, discovered some very suspicious erasures. For these erasures, a very clumsy excuse was given; but as Mr. Barry had then a majority in the Senate friendly to him, a thorough examination could not be had.

Now to explain the object of this concealment of these loans.—Our readers, no doubt, all recollect that Mr. Barry was a strenuous advocate for the removal of the deposits. Now, he may have expected that the "pet" banks would pay the amount of these loans as a bonus for the use of the deposits; or he may have supposed that in the confusion, created by the scattering of the national treasures to the four winds and twenty banks, these loans might have been paid, without detection.

It is useless, however, to make surmises upon the subject now. No doubt there will be an investigation, a thorough investigation of the whole matter, by a committee determined to ferret out the whole truth. There will not now be, as there was in the case of the suspicious erasures, a majority disposed to favor Mr. Barry, and to conceal his iniquity or blunders.

COLONEL BENTON.—This very cheap patriot, who, in 1812, accused General Jackson of an attempt to assassinate him, now enjoys the unenvied and unenviable honor of being the loudest and most fulsome eulogist and defender of this same General Jackson. This duty, even if it is performed gratuitously, is no sinecure—on the contrary, its performance is some times attended with the most painful and mortifying circumstances—circumstances which, at least, would be most painful and mortifying to a person of the slightest feeling.

One of these occurrences took place a few days ago, and must have enabled even this impenetrable man to perceive the very low estimation in which he is held by his cosenators.—He had consumed, or rather wasted, four days in a dull and tiresome tirade against the Bank, and concluded by offering the following resolution, as an amendment to one previously offered by Mr. Clay:

"That Nicholas Biddle, President of the Bank of the United States, and —— be summoned to appear at the bar of the Senate on the —— day of ——, then and there to be examined on oath, touching the causes of the late large curtailment of debts due to the Bank of the United States, and the manner of conducting the said curtailments; also, to be then and there examined touching the application of the moneys of the Bank to electioneering and political objects."

On the next day, (January 8th,) Mr. Southard called for the question upon this amendment, which was immediately taken, and the Colonel's resolution was rejected, by a vote of 34 nays to 12 ayes. The following are the ayes and nays:—

Yeas—Messrs. Benton, Brown, Grundy, Hill, Kane, Linn, Morris, Shepley, Tallmadge, Tipton, White, and Wright—12.

Nays—Messrs. Bell, Bibb, Black, Calhoun, Chambers, Clay, Ewing, Forsyth, Frelinghuysen, Hendricks, Kent, King, of Alabama, King, of Georgia, Knight, McKean, Mangum, Moore, Naudain, Poindexter, Porter, Prentiss, Preston, Rives, Robbins, Robinson, Silsbee, Southard, Sprague, Smith, Swift, Tomlinson, Waggaman, Webster, Wilkins—34.

We are gratified to perceive the names of both our Senators among those who read such a lesson to the base tool of the Kitchen Cabinet. Ordinary men would suppose that the Colonel would be content to sneak along through the balance of the Session as quietly as possible. Not so, however; he is as destitute of pride or feeling, as of principle; and, as he began, so he will continue through the Session, leaving his slimy trail behind him.

For the Gazette.

MR. CRAIG—The Messrs. Herrmanns, Mair, and Muhlauer, gave a "soiree musicale" last night, at the Concert Hall. I did not get there in time to hear the first pieces of music, but heard enough to satisfy me of their great powers to please all lovers of good music. It is evident that our people are fond of German songs, and these truly accomplished gentlemen seem eminently qualified to gratify our taste in that respect. What a nation are these Germans! and how acceptable and valuable as emigrants, whether they come as hardy laborers to ameliorate the soil, or as profound scholars and refined artists, to cultivate the taste and improve the mind.—To morrow evening they will perform again at the same place, and we recommend your readers to avail themselves of the last opportunity of enjoying a treat.

PENNSYLVANIA LEGISLATURE.

January 9, 1834.—In the Senate, Mr. Newhard offered the following resolution which was read twice and agreed to.

Resolved, That the Judiciary committee be instructed to inquire into the expediency of providing a remedy whereby creditors of any partnership may have execution against the real property of a deceased partner, upon a judgment or judgments against the surviving partner or his representatives, and to report by bill or otherwise.

PETITIONS.

January 10.—A memorial from the Philadelphia Board of Trade, for the extension of the Pennsylvania canal from Pittsburgh to Beaver, to connect with the Ohio canal. For and against the alteration of holding elections in Philadelphia.

In Committee of the Whole.—Mr. Middlecoff in the Chair, the bill to recharter the Bank of Pittsburgh was reported without amendment.

In the House of Representatives no very important business has been transacted, since our last. There was a debate, of some interest, yesterday and to day, on Mr. Keating's resolution, relative to the State Banks. The debate was confined, yesterday, to Mr. Crawford, of Franklin, in opposition, and Messrs. Keating and Holcomb, of Philadelphia, in favor of the resolution. The debate assumed somewhat of a party character. We shall soon give the debate entire, and will not, therefore, anticipate any part of it in our editorial remarks. The debate was continued to day—Messrs. Thompson, of Venango, Crawford, of Franklin, Smith, of Chester, and Kerr, of Butler, opposed the resolution—Messrs. Walker, of Erie, Lacock, of Beaver, Stevens, of Adams, White, of Philadelphia, and Anderson, of Delaware, advocated the resolution. A warm party debate continued until the hour of adjournment. It is probable that the debate will be resumed to morrow, as several other gentlemen have been taking notes. Motions were made by Messrs. Moorhead, of Westmoreland, and Robinson, of Allegheny, to amend the resolution by striking out the word "weekly," and insert monthly. These motions were lost, by a vote of 51 to 44—the friends of the resolution generally voting for the amendment.—Harrisburg Intel., Jan. 9.

The resolution offered by Mr. Keating of the House, calling upon the State Banks for a weekly report, of their affairs, after four days' debate was negatived, to day.—Yeas 45, Nays 53.—Harrisburgh Tel. Jan. 10.

THE POST OFFICE LOANS.

GENERAL POST OFFICE DEPARTMENT, January 6, 1834.

To the Hon. MARTIN VAN BUREN,
Vice President of the United States, and President of the Senate.

SIR: In obedience to the Resolution of the Senate of the 31st ult., I have the honor to state, that this Department has borrowed, between the 28th of December, 1832, and the present date, and which still remains unliquidated, to the amount of $350,000, viz:

Loaned of the Manhattan Bank, at N. York, at different times between the 28th December, 1832, and the first April, 1833,	$100,000
Between the 25th October and the 31st December, 1833,	100,000
		$200,000
Of the Western Bank of Philadelphia, on the 26th April, 1833,		50,000
Of the Bank of Maryland, on the 5th June, 1833,		50,000
Of the Commonwealth Bank of Boston, on the 1st November, 1833.		50,000
Making together, as above, the sum of		$350,000

A loan was also made of the Patriotic Bank of this city, on the 1st of May, 1833, of $50,000 for six months, which was repaid, when it became due.

In all these cases, an interest is allowed at the rate of six per cent. per annum.

The above comprises all the moneys borrowed by the Department on interest. Some of the banks, in which Post Masters deposit their balances to the credit of the Department, have been overdrawn by the Department; but to what amount cannot be precisely ascertained, because the state of their accounts is changing every day by deposits being made in such Banks; but the total amount of such over drafts is estimated at $50,000, from which sum it will not essentially vary.

I have the honor to be, very respectfully,
Your obedient servant,
W. T. BARRY.

RICHMOND, (Va.,) Jan. 8.

Yesterday was an interesting day in the House of Delegates, in consequence of its being set apart for the election of Governor. Littleton Waller Tazewell, Esq. and Messrs. Edward Watts, of Botetourt, and Peter V. Daniel, of this city, were in nomination before the Lower House, and the Senate added no one to the candidates previously nominated. These nominations gave rise to a good deal of conversation respecting the particular opinions of the different gentlemen before the House. We refer to the proceedings of the Legislature for the particulars of the election.

The election of Mr. Tazewell will give universal satisfaction throughout the State. His high character, as an individual—his distinguished talents, and honorable public service, render the selection the best that could have been made. The Legislature might have looked through the whole Union, and found no fitter man. In this instance it may be truly said that the man suits the place. He will illustrate the office itself, and be such a Governor as Virginia should ever have. Mr. Barbour delivered a handsome address in supporting his nomination. We are proud to announce an election so honorable both to the Legislature and to the State.—Compiler.

We congratulate the State upon Mr. Tazewell's election, both in consideration of that gentleman's superior and brilliant claims, and the SIGN that is thus revealed to the world.

We learn that the Kitchen Cabinet was staggered by the vote in the election of Public Printer, and confounded by the Richmond movement on the Deposits—let them henceforward and forever, give up all calculations upon this ancient and renowned Commonwealth. Ritchie may send Jackson the reply of Caius Marius—"Go and tell your master you have seen Caius Marius sitting on the ruins of Carthage."—Richmond Whig.

The legislature of New York assembled at Albany, on Tuesday last. The officers agreed upon at the caucus of the republican members the night previous, were elected—William Baker as speaker by a vote of 113 to 11. Governor Marcy's Message fills nearly six closely printed columns of the Mercantle Advertiser.—Amer. Sent.

The Report of the Postmaster General, which we copy from the National Intelligencer, is of a most serious import. Can the Departments borrow or overdraw to any amount, without the previous authority of Congress? And if so why have Congress ever taken the trouble to pass laws authorizing loans? A Washington correspondent, of the Delaware State Journal, makes the following commentary, which does not appear to us exorbitant, in so suspicious and anomalous a case.—National Gazette.

"The bankruptcy of the Post Office Department has been often predicted by the opponents of this administration. But all charges of mismanagement have been repelled as gross calumnies, and W. T. Barry represented as the very prince of Postmaster Generals. His mail facilities, fast mails, reduced contracts, and the order and system introduced into that Department by his talents, have been trumpeted forth to the nation, and been the theme of the faithful in every state of the Union. But lo! now comes the development. The Postmaster General, in a Report made to the Senate, to day, admits that he has borrowed, and owes, 350 Thousand Dollars, which he is paying 6 per cent. interest upon, and that he has overdrawn, in the banks that he keeps his accounts in, 50,000 dollars more! Here then is an acknowledgment that the Department owes 400,000 dollars, without saying any thing about the debts due to mail contractors, which he has not been able, even with all this aid, to meet——Without saying any thing about the want of authority, on the part of the Postmaster General, to borrow, the worst feature in this business seems to be, that immediately after his vaporing report concerning the flourishing condition of his Department, made at the commencement of the last session of Congress;—in the face of the facts as set forth in that report to the nation;—on the 28th day of December, 1832, he was obliged to borrow, and by the middle of April, almost during the session, he had borrowed 100,000 dollars, of the Manhattan Bank. * * * * Can it be possible, that he, the Head of the Department, was so grossly ignorant of its concerns as not to know that, instead of being in a sound and flourishing state, it was on the verge of bankruptcy? But when, I ask, he found, before his report to Congress was a month old, that he could not get along without funds, why did he not come to Congress and expose the wants of his Department? But no, that did not suit. That course would have led to an investigation, and an investigation was not then desired by the K. C."

Well done Virginia.—The spirit that has awakened in the Capitol at Richmond, is doing its duty not in that State only, but elsewhere. The Bank selected as the deposit Bank, sees through the eyes of its stockholders, (enlightened, doubtless, by the spirit,) that the government "fangs" do not become its bosom, and its affairs; and hence the following resolutions, which we copy from the Richmond Compiler.—Com. Her.

"Bank of Virginia.—At the Annual Meeting of the Stockholders yesterday, held at their Bank Room, the following resolutions were adopted:

Resolved, That the Stockholders disapprove of so much of the agreement, between the President and Directors of the Bank of Virginia, and the Secretary of the Treasury of the United States, for the deposit of the public money of the United States in the Bank of Virginia, as is embraced in the second, fifth, sixth, seventh, and eighth, articles thereof—so much of the 3d article as stipulates that returns of the condition of the Bank shall be made to the Secretary of the Treasury, and to submit the Books and transactions of the Bank to the examination of the Secretary of the Treasury, or his Agent—and so much of the fourth article as stipulates, that the Bank shall transfer any portion of its deposits, to any other Bank or Banks employed by the government of the U. States.

Resolved, That the Stockholders cannot consent that the Secretary of the Treasury of the United States, or the Officer or Agent of any other government, whose authority is not recognised by the Charter, shall have any agency whatever in controlling the administration of the affairs of the Bank, or in suggesting to its Officers or Agents any wish or expectation, as to the manner in which the funds of the Bank are to be administered. They, therefore, deeply regret, that the communication of the Secretary of the Treasury to the President of the Bank, in which he declares, that "the department anticipates from you the adoption of such a course respecting your accommodations, as will prove acceptable to the people, and safe to the government," had been promptly answered by the information, that the Officers of this Bank could not permit the interference of the Officers of the Government of the United States in any manner whatever in the administration of its affairs.

Resolved, That the President and Directors of this Bank be instructed to communicate to the Secretary of the Treasury of the United States, that so much of the agreement aforesaid, as is hereby disapproved, cannot be carried into effect by this Bank"

From the National Gazette.

The first editorial article of the New York Standard, of the 9th instant, contains the annexed suggestion. The Standard is devoted to Kitchen Cabinet Jacksonism, and the suggestion correlates, we may say, to the scheme of excluding Congress from all real participation in the management of national affairs. Aye—let Congress withdraw—let Kendall reign with the spirit and tone of Cromwell—let Congress be reassembled only when that body shall be prepared to act according to the wishes and designs of the Kitchen Cabinet! Then shall we have the Republic one and indivisible, such as flourished in France under the Directory, and afterwards under the First Consul for Life. Extract from the Standard:—

"Congress ought to break up, and the members should go home. There is no business of any moment but this bank affair, and so long as they continue in session Mr. Biddle will not relax his efforts to coerce assent to his claims, by oppressing the community. Let the Bank be turned over to the Committee of Ways and Means, let the Committee go to Philadelphia and make a thorough investigation, let the appropriations be passed, and then the members may better go home, and save money to the country, than continue a session which affords to factious intriguers opportunity to carry on their nefarious schemes. The Committee will have finished their labors before the opening of the next session, and then the bank can be dealt with definitively as it shall prove to deserve; or if they are prepared to report at an earlier day, Congress can reassemble, and act—at present they can only talk."

The Deposits.—The Boston Atlas, of Thursday last, says—"We understand that the Committee of Merchants of this city, to whom the subject of the present pecuniary embarrassment was referred last week, decided yesterday by a vote of seventeen to three, to present a memorial to Congress, urging the restoration of the public deposits to the United States' Bank."

CONGRESS.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

The following is a continuation of the Memorials, of a general nature, presented Jan. 6, 1834:

By Mr. Stewart—A petition of inhabitants of Western Pennsylvania, praying Congress to subscribe a million of dollars to the capital stock of the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal, to be applied in the construction of the western section of said canal.

By Mr. Coulter—A similar memorial of inhabitants of the county of Westmoreland, in the state of Pennsylvania.

By Mr. Denny—A similar memorial of inhabitants of Pittsburgh, in the State of Pennsylvania.

By Mr. Sutherland, a similar petition of Pittsburgh, in the State of Pennsylvania.

From the National Gazette, Jan. 10.

We have not yet received the number of the New York Journal of Commerce, due to us yesterday morning; but we have borrowed it in order to notice another article under its editorial head touching "the expediency of Mr. Biddle's retiring from the direction of the Bank." The Journal of Commerce, and the cabinet behind or about it, are well understood here. The writer of the article just mentioned, says—

"We have heard, upon authority we deem unquestionable, that some of the Stockholders of the Bank, in this city, (New York) wrote to Mr. Biddle, near the close of last week, earnestly soliciting him, as an act of magnanimity, to retire from the Bank, though at the same time expressing their cardial approval of the general course of his administration."

Now, we have heard, on authority which we deem unquestionable, that Mr. Biddle has not received, from any one, a line, or the least intimation of a wish, concerning retirement. Let the authority of the Journal be adduced. The re-election of Mr. Biddle was attended with remarkable unanimitity and earnestness. There has been from every quarter a general and very emphatic expression of desire and opinion, the reverse of the suggestion of the Journal of Commerce. We readily give the Journal all the benefit of a quotation of the following passage of the same article.

"As we have reason to believe that the principal opposition to his resignation comes fron Philadelphia, we have another remark to make, which is this—The people must have a Bank with the general features of the Bank of the U. States—and if the Philadelphians will not let us recharter theirs, we must have a new one; and that new one will be located in New York."

Both ends of the Capitol resounded, on Wednesday, with the facts, and arguments, and eloquence of able men, against the removal of the Deposits. We heard it said, in Washington, that the progress of truth is mighty! Some go so far as to say that the Deposits will be replaced—some say that the majority against replacing them will not be more than four or five. We give these rumors as we hear them. We do not vouch for their correctness.—Alex. Gaz.

Steam Boat Disaster—The Charleston Patriot, of the 3d instant, states that the steamer Georgian, Harris, with a freight of merchandise, for Columbus, (Ga.) of the value of from 50 to 100,000 dollars, was snagged near that place on the 26th ult. The principal part of the goods was insured, but the boat not. The Georgian was built at Pittsburg (Penn.) about three years since, cost eight thousand dollars, and was owned by Messrs. J. S. Calhoun, Harris, and others of Columbus.

Anecdotes of Whaling.—The number of English vessels in the Greenland trade, is, as we stated it the other day, about 90; the whole number in the business, 250. The writer in the North American—who, by the way, is understood to be a N. Bedford gentleman, thoroughly versed in his subject—says, the Biscayans, of the 15th century, were the first Europeans who engaged in the fishery, and that they had over 50 vessels, in the 16th.

Alluding to the hazards of this business, he states that the veteran, Captain Scoresby, went through twenty eight voyages successfully; and that he killed 498 whales, yielding 4,296 to s of oil, valued, with the bones, at about $600,000. We are not aware that a parallel to this can be shown in New England.

The average length of a whale is 50 feet, but a species called, by the Greenlanders, the Razor Back sometimes exceeds 100, being the largest of the whale tribe, though it yields but little oil. The common whale seldom exceeds 60, and the oil rarely 200 barrels. Capt. Howland, of New Bedford, however, before the Revolution, took one which afforded 212 barrels. Two of them loaded his sloop with 400 barrels, and 400 pounds of bone.

In the Greenland seas, the animal lives upon the minute and almost invisible living particles with which they are filled to such an extent that Scoresby says 80,000 men, employed from the creation, could only number two square miles of them.—Boston Jour.

Medical Testimony.—The uncertainty of the law is a frequent subject of remark and ridicule, but the uncertainty of testimony is quite as signal, as every lawyer well knows: and indeed, the former has resulted, and must result, in no small degree from the latter—the witnesses being as lame, at least, as the law. In a late case in the Circuit Court in this city, brought by a foreign marine against his captain, for injury alleged to have suffered in consequence of the plaintiff's being tied up in the rigging and flogged, four eminent city physicans were questioned on the probability of the connection between such cause and such consequence. The first on the stand said, substantially, that he tho't it next to impossible; the second, that it might happen, but was not probable; the third that it was quite likely, on the whole, it did, but by no means certain. The fourth, testified, without hesitation that he had'nt the least doubt of it—it could'nt well be otherwise!—Boston Journal.

The Dead Alive.—Glasgow Election Law.—Mr. D. M'Nicol voted for the Liberal list, but his vote was objected to, on the ground that he was not in the burgh register. On examining the Parliamentary Register it was found that the Sheriff had marked him as 'dead' and Mr. Turner (Town Clerk) said in these circumstances he was not entitled to a vote. Mr. M'Allister, Writer, said that the individual had bona fide appeared at the poll. The Lord Provost thought that his appearance at the poll was a pretty good proof of his being alive. Mr. Turner said they could not alter the sheriff's decision. The Lord Provost: So then, although the man is alive, we must hold him to be dead—(a laugh,) Mr. Reddie admitted it certainly was rather awkward. Vote rejected. [illegible] course the individual will have an action of damages against the Sheriff for the loss of his vote.)—Glasgow Evening Post.

The King of Bavaria.—The present King of Bavaria's ruling predilections are said to have been numerous and engrossing. In early life he was a professed antiquary, traveled in Greece, and effected the purchase of a large portion of the Ægina marbles. He next became a patriot; then a man of letters, and a liberal: then, although extremely deaf, a "fantatico per la musica;" then a Catholic, restoring monasteries and advocating miracle mongery; and, lastly, the protector of the still lovely Lady Ellenborough. His Majesty is stated to affect great eccentricity: he is in the habit of entering the beer shops of his capitol, which being of about the extent of Leeds, his person is universally known, calling for half a pitcher of "Baierische cier," and receiving the change out of his florin.

Wheat has fallen 25 cents per bushel, in the Richmond market. No other reason is assigned for the fall except the scarcity of money.—Nat. Gaz.

LOUISVILLE HOTEL.

THIS new and splendid establishment, situated on Main street, has been leased of the Louisville Hotel Company by the subscribers, for a term of years, and they feel no hesitation in saying that the entire arrangement of this Hotel, for extent of accommodation, elegance, and comfort, are not surpassed by any Hotel in the United States. Its location is pleasant and airy, and but a few moments' walk from the steam boats. The house contains nearly 200 apartments, most of which have fire places; and has a private entrance, leading to thirty suits of rooms, expressly arranged for the accommodation of families—has also seventy single lodging rooms. The establishment is furnished in the best modern style, and the Wines and Liquors have been selected with great care from the most celebrated vaults in New York and Boston. The proprietors, grateful for the liberal patronage bestowed on the different establishments they have been connected with in the eastern cities, hope, by their experience and personal attention, to gain for this Hotel a reputation equal to any in America. The Hotel was opened for the reception of transient and permanent boarders on the 1st of December.

BRADDOCK'S FIELD

Edgeworth Young Ladies' Seminary.

ANOTHER year, the seventh of this Institution, has terminated, under circumstances pleasing in the retrospect, and replete with successful result.

In taking leave of those young ladies whose allotted time has expired, the relation of teacher and pupil of course ceases, but feelings of kindness, and desire for friendly intercourse, with mutual prosperity, will ever exist.

Health, the first of earthly blessings, has been so extraordinary, as to make Braddock's Field proverbial as a place for its enjoyment; and the additional buildings and arrangements have given satisfaction to all. We therefore announce, with gratitude, the prosperity of the Institution, in the present public manner.

On the 18th proximo, (September) it is intended to resume the engagements of the Seminary, but with a limited number.

It is intended, that, except as vacancies occur, no more pupils shall be received the next session, than those whose names remain on the list, or who are considered as engaged. This arrangement, it is presumed, will receive the approval of our friends.

The same course of studies will be pursued as particularized in former notices—and the terms continue unaltered, viz.

Pupilage, with reference to all the English branches, $150

Tuition in Music and Drawing, 50

No extras but washing and stationery.

CARLISLE IRON WORKS

FOR SALE.

THIS valuable property, late the estate of Michael Ege, deceased, consists of about 8,000 acres of land, including three Farms, on which are a furnace, forge, grist mill, saw mill, and rolling and slitting mill; with all necessary barns, stables, coal houses, out houses, and dwellings for families of the workmen, in the most complete and permanent state. The water power being derived, principally, from a large limestone spring, to which the stream of the Yellow Breeches has been added, is more than adequte to the purposes of the works; and has besides the uncommon advantage of being unaffected by ice or back water. An inexhaustible bank of mountain ore of the best quality for bar iron, is found on the estate, two miles from the furnace, and limestone ore may be had in a situation equally convenient. The wood land and meadow are amply sufficient for the supply of the works, which are advantageously situate as respects a market, being but seventy miles from Baltimore, five from Carlisle, and sixteen from the Susquehanna. This desirable property will remain for private sale till the first of April next, when it will be offered at vendue, if not sooner disposed of. For terms, apply to the subscribers, either at Carlisle or Philadelphia.

Superior Wines & Liquors

THE Subscribers respectfully inform their friends and the public, that they have now for sale, the following Wines and Liquors, in bottle, which they have lately brought in from Philadelphia, expressly for city custom, and which have been selected with the greatest care. They pledge themselves every article shall be sold pure and unadulterated, and flatter themselves they will be found equal, if not superior, to any ever offered in this city. Private families are particularly solicited to give them a trial--the prices will be found moderate.

J. APPLETON'S LATE IMPROVED

WASHING MACHINE.

THIS valuable improvement has been preferred by all who have used it to any other machine of the kind yet offered to the public.—It is expeditious, without injuring the clothes washed, as will be seen in the certificates below. All those who wish to save labor in washing, will please to call and see the operation, at the Masinon House, corner of Wood and Fifth streets. Machines, and the right of counties for sale—Machines 12 dollars—and at any persons service for trial. Dec. 31, 1833.

We have had in use Appleton's Patent Washing Machine, and do not hesitate to say that it is preferable to any that we have seen or used. A woman can wash as much in one day, with the machine, as she could in three by the hand, and only half the soap is necessary. We think it clears the clothes better than hand washing, without injury to them. We have also used Barnes' Patent Steam Washing Machine, called Peg Machine, but give Appleton's the preference. It washes cleaner and faster; therefore we recommend Appleton's Machine to the public in general.

Lucy Higginbotham, | Elizabeth McKim.
Robert Poore,

We have in use Appleton's Patent Washing Machine. It is so simple in its construction that it may be used by any unskilful hand, and we do recommend it as a great saving of time and labor.

Hamilton County Agricultural Society.

It is hereby certified, that the Judges, appointed by the Hamilton County Agricultural Society, for the exhibition, held at Mill Creek, on the second of October, 1833, having awarded that Appleton's Washing Machine, submitted to the Society, on trial, appeared to their satisfaction to be of utility as a labor saving machine in domestic economy—they unhesitatingly recommend it to their fellow citizens—in testimony whereof, this Certificate is given. A Partner Wanted.

THE Subscriber, being possessed of a valuable property in the Borough of Brownsville, in the county of Fayette, and state of Pennsylvania, in a public part of the town, consisting of two and a half lots of ground, bounded by Water street on the north, and the National Road on the south, say 150 feet on each, by 180 feet in depth, on which are erected one large three story Brick Dwelling House, one two story Brick Dwelling House, one Brick Foundry, one three story Stone and Brick Engine Shop; the whole of which are finished for the purposes intended. A considerable business has been and still is carried on in Manufacturing Steam Engines for Steam Boats, Mills, Furnaces, &c. &c.; the Castings for which are made at the foundry; also, other Castings, such as Grates, Stoves, and a variety of other articles, all of which are in demand. The subscriber is fully sensible that an extensive and profitable business could be carried on by an accession of Capital; he therefore wishes to sell one half the above described property to some person as a partner, who would have a few thousand dollars. Brownsville is well situated for such an establishment, being on the Monongahela river, which is navigable the greater part of the year: plenty of good stone coal in the whole vicinity, and in the neighborhood of a number of Furnaces, and as healthy a situation as any in the United States. A further description is deemed unnecessary, as any person wishing to purchase will come and view the premises.

FAIRBANK'S PLATFORM SCALES.

THESE scales are constructed upon an improved principle; are fitted up with great care by the manufacturers, and warranted to weigh with accuracy from half a pound to 12,000. Being placed in, and forming part of, the floor, the process of weighing is performed with ease and facility, while the space they occupy may be improved as a passage way or for other purposes.

The construction of these scales is such that they are little liable to derangement of wear, and their perfect operation will be guaranteed for any reasonable length of time.

The usual objection, that a new method of weighing cannot be safely entrusted to unskilful hands, is obviated by the use of the improved Balance, concerning which are the following remarks in the Journal of the Franklin Institute, of the state of Pennsylvania, for the promotion of the Mechanic Arts, for June, 1833. (Edited by Thos. P. Jones, M. D., late Superintendent of the Patent Office, at Washington, Professor of Mechanics in the Franklin Institute, &c.

"The Messrs. Fairbanks, some time since, obtained a patent for a Platform Weighing Machine, and this mode of adjuating and graduating the Beam of the Balance, and the weights, was devised by them with a view to its employment with the before mentioned machine. We have had an opportunity of examining one of their balances, and have been much pleased with it: this examination, however, was not necessary to the conviction that it possesses a just claim to the character of a real improvement, the whole arrangement being so simple as to enable any person to perceive that it is well adapted to the purpose contemplated, that of facilitating the business of weighing, and more especially of heavy articles."

The subscriber, as Agent, will receive orders for the above Scales, which will be made in this city to order. They can be seen at his Warehouse, No. 84, Front street.

DOCTOR ROBERT'S

☞WELCH MEDICAMENTUM.☜

FOR the cure of Dyspepsia, Liver Complaints, Jaundice, Cholic, Fever and Ague, Dysentery, Headach, Loss of Appetite, Flatulence, Hypochondria, Hysterics, Dropsical Complaints, and Heartburn, It also prevents all Bilious disorders, and removes habitual Costiveness, Asthma, Strangury, Gravel, Rheumatism, Gout, and Impurities of the Blood.

A person who uses this Medicamentum will not require the use of the lancet, or any means of the healing art. It restores and revives the animal spirits, invigorates the system, removes nervous tremors, obtunds rheumatic and anthritic pains, and prevents their return. It cleanses the stomach of all morbid humors, which cause indigestion, acidities, headach, and lowness of spirits; cures all bilious disorders, and all cholics of the stomach and bowels, almost immediately; inspires cheerfulness; gives comfort to the dropsical; takes away palpitation of the heart; gives circulation to the blood; restores bloom to the sallow or sickly cheek, and plumpness to the meagre habit; purges without pain, and banishes all cause of fever of every kind. It acts on the stomach, that great reservoir of the human system, a diseased state of which causes all diseases. No alteration in the usual habits of life is required, but the abstaining from distilled ardent spirits.

CERTIFICATE,

From Rev. Derick Lansing, D. D., Pastor of the Second Presbyterian Church in Utica.

Utica, Jan. 6, 1830.

To Dr. Hitchcock.—Dear Sir: I have always been one of the number of those who have placed little confidence in nostrums or specifics, and for this reason, although I saw your advertisement of the Welch Medicamentum, I could not bring my mind to consent to use it. My sufferings, from indigestion, during the past summer, were so severe, as materially to affect my comfort, and my capacity for usefulness. I have reason to thank you, sir, that, on hearing of the state of my health, you kindly sent me your Medicamentum. I have taken it faithfully, and with entire success. I have not been visited with one of those turns of distress, which before were weekly periodical, since I began to take your valuable medicine. Could I receive the same relief which I have hitherto experienced, on condition of taking it for life, I should cheerfully comply with such condition. Your's, very truly, D. C. LANSING.

ANTI-DYSPEPTIC ELIXER.

ONE of the most agreeable and efficacious Medicines ever discovered for the permanent cure of those chronic states of derangement of the stomach, constituting that miserable disease called Dyspepsia.

The basis of this Elixer s vegetables, and perfectly innocent in its operation; it destroys that sour state of the stomach, the instant it is taken, and stops the morbid secretion, by giving strength to the muscular fibre of that important organ, by which means the peristaltic motion of the intestines is increased, and the costiveness obviated; a new action is given to the system, which puts an end to a train of distressing nervous sensations.

Another form of the disease in which the Elixer is admirably calculated to relieve, is the decline of fever, where the stomach will not bear the ordinary strengthening medicines indicated in such cases, it has the surprising effect of giving vigor, and restoring the natural secretions of the body, without increasing the febrile state. Not the least danger is to be apprehended from exposure to cold, while under the use of this medicine, nor will it interrupt necessary employment of the patient a single hour.

☞A number of cases of cures performed by the Anti-Dyspeptic Elixer in the vicinity of Pittsburgh can be given.

GEO. W. CARPENTER'S COMPOUND SYRUP OF LIVERWORT,

A SAFE and Valuable Medicine for Coughs, Spitting of Blood, Consumption, and Liver Complaints.

Most of the medicines made use of for the above diseases are of a stimulating nature, composed generally of Resins and Balsams, in alcoholic solutions, which, although sometimes giving temporary relief, in almost every instance where they are freely used, aggravate the disease, and reduce the strength of the patient.

This article possesses superior advantages over these preparations, its action being of a tonic, invigorating and strengthening nature, thus overcoming the disease by promoting expectoration, and gradully increasing the strength of the patient, and thus, without being attended with any unpleasant effects: it also agrees with the stomach, in a cases, and is a pleasant medicine to take.

TYPE FOUNDRY.

HAVING purchased of Mr. Richard Ronaldson, his long established and very extensive Type Foundry, the subscribers have formed a co-partnership for the purpose of continuing said business, and for the convenience of their friends and patrons, have removed their establishment to a more central part of the city. As it is their intention to keep on hand a good assortment of the best type, and to make such additions and improvements as the taste of the trade and the wants of the country require, they flatter themselves that this establishment will merit a large share of patronage. They have now several founts on hand, which can be furnished at a few hours' notice, and are prepared to make founts of all weights and sizes, from Pearl to 22 lines Pica, including a variety of Ornamental Letter. Their assortment of Cuts, Dashes, Brass Rule, and other Ornaments, will be found to be very extensive, of which specimens will be forwarded to Printers as soon as they can be prepared.

Printing Presses of every description, Printing Ink of the most approved qualities, Composing Sticks, Brass and Common Galleys, Chases, Imposing Stones, Cases, Paper and Press Boards, Standing Presses, Furniture, together with a complete assortment of all articles used in a Printing Office, will be kept constantly on hand.

Small founts, suitable for Book Binders, in great variety, may be had when called for.

Orders from all parts in the Union will be promptly and most carefully attended to, and particularly in supplying sorts for all founts furnished by their predecessors, Binny & Ronaldson, and Richard Ronaldson.

PATENT PLANING MACHINE.—The right to use this valuable machine, invented and patented by William Woodworth, and known as Woodworth's Patent Planing Machine, may be obtained on application to the subscriber for the counties of Allegheny, Butler, Beaver, Washington, Green, Fayette, Somerset, Cambria, Indiana, Jefferson, Clearfield, M'Kean, Warren, Venango, Mercer, Crawford, and Erie, in the State of Pennsylvania. That part of Maryland lying west of the Blue Ridge; all that part of Virginia lying west of the Blue Ridge, except the county of Ohio. The whole of the state of Ohio except the counties of Hamilton, Butler, and Montgomery. The whole of the state of Kentucky, except the counties of Jefferson, Boone, Oldham, Gallatin, and Campbell. The whole of Indiana, except the counties of Floyd, Clark, Jefferson, Dearborn, and Switzerland. The whole of the state of Illinois, and the territory of Michigan. Rights to use the machine in that part of the United States, named above, will be sold by the single county or in larger districts. As it is presumed that no one will purchase without seeing the machine at work, a description of it is deemed unnecessary. Should any person, however, wish to purchase, and find it inconvenient to visit the places where it is in operation, a machine will be furnished, warranted to plane, tongue and groove, and bring to an exact width and thickness, a white pine board of 12 feet long, and of any width from 1 to 14 inches, in one minute and ten seconds, or an oak board of the same dimensions in 2 minutes and 10 seconds. Machines may be seen at work in the cities of New Orleans, Washington, Philadelphia, New York, Boston, and others at the south and east, at Wheeling, Virginia, and at the saw mill of Messrs. Irwin & Herron, in this city.

Persons desiring to purchase will have the certificates of scientific and practical men who have seen it at work, in the different places in which it has been put up, forwarded to them. They give their opinion as to the great value of the invention, state the time they have seen boards dressed by this machine, and describe the quality of the work as compared with that performed by hand labor.
